3 B Corp

We're proud to say we're a certified B Corp organisation. This means that we are committed to using business as a force for good and maintaining ethical practices in our organisation across 5 key areas – governance, our people, our local community, the environment and our customers.

That's why our ultimate purpose is not to provide a return to shareholders but to deliver happiness to our people, customers, and suppliers. We choose not to be constrained by short term financial targets but to strive for long-term goals aligned to our pursuit of happiness, and our collective desire to have a positive impact on people and the planet.

We hold ourselves to high standards, which is why we've already become Carbon Neutral and a part of the B-Corp movement. We're also aligning to the standards as set out by the Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi) which puts us on a path to Net Zero. We're ensuring that our responsibilities to society and the environment are formally set out in our business objectives - embedded in our DNA - just part of our commitment to creating a more sustainable future.

Connectivity - the lifeblood of our business - transforms the way we all learn, work and play. It gives us the power to achieve more, fulfil our potential and find solutions to the challenges facing our planet. We want to empower our customers to expand their world, using their connectivity to make positive change

Are independent audits performed?	Zen undergoes 6 monthly independent audits, carried out by our auditing body, NQA.
How frequently are independent audits performed?	Zen also has an internal audit team who perform an ongoing programme of audits against the certifications we hold to ensure both ongoing compliance and continual improvement.
Can you supply a copy of the most recent audit report?	In line with industry practice Zen does not supply details of auditing or technical findings to third parties. The recurring retention of the certificate demonstrates ongoing compliance with the requirements of the standard.
Can we audit you?
